He has always been conandered one of the ablest lawyers in the state, and his fame as chief justice is recognized abroad as well as at home. His decisions are constantly quoted, and it is conceded that few, if any, of the eminent American jurists possess a more accurate or extensive knowledge of law.

In his younger days Justice Beasley was city solicitor of Trenton, for which he received the munificent sum of $15 a year. In 1851 he was the Whig candidate for mayor of Trenton, but he was defeated by William Nupton. In 1850 he served as president of the Trenton common council. His circuit as chief justice comprised Monmouth and Middlesex counties.

MINISTER THURSTON'S DIPLOMACY.

He Has Been Courting an American Girl

as Well as the American Government. That the golden thread of a love story runs through all the complicated meshes of diplomacy in which Minister Thurston of Hawaii has been et angled for the past year or more is evident from the announcement that he is about to marry Miss Harriet W. Potter of St. Joseph, Mich, the young woman who was until recently the cashier of the Hawaiian volcano cyclorama at the California Midwinter fair and had previously filled the same position while the cyclorama was at the Columbian exposition. Mr. Thurston has been a warm friend of Miss Potter's family for a number of years and has been a frequent visitor at St. Joseph, where he has a large number of acquaintances, but none of them suspected what was going on until the public announcement of the engagement was made. Miss Potter is a very attractive young woman of 22, slightly above the medium height and of the blond type, her hair being light brown and her eyes large and blue. She was born in St. Joseph and graduated from the public school there three years ago, afterward taking charge of one of the classes. She served on the staff of the St Joseph Daily Press for awhile. In manner Miss Potter is very unassuming, but she possesses a quiet dignity that always commands respect and admiration. She is said to be a clever and entertaining conversationist and is unusually accomplished. Minister Thurston is about 38 years of ago and has been a widower for five or six years. He has a son 0 years old, who 14 now in Washington under the care of the remeters mother. Mr. Thurston was born in Hawan. > In January when times were the hardest and many advertisers were reducing their expanditures for printer's ick, the ALGES had an order from the proprietors of Paine's celery comp und for the largest amount of advertising over published by it for any medicine

The wisdom of this course is shown by the fact that to-day the druggists of this city report that no other medicine sells as freely as Paine's celery compourd This is a good object lesson for the local advertisers, and shows that if they have an article of superior merit, and will advertise it liberally and judiciously in the Aners. they will find their trade increasing, and the hard times will not be noticed

Among the newspaper men, Paine's celery compound is especially popular. There is no occupation whose requirements are so wearing upon the nervous system as that of newspaper work. Subject to duty at all times, with a liability to sleepless nights and dinnerless days, there is a peculiar strain upon the system in the recorter's work which frequently to physicial exhaustion and mental depression.

Many newspaper workers in Middictown who have suffered severely from nervous troubles, arising from overwork and close confinement find pleasure in attributing to Paine's celery compound their new strength and vigor. It is an ideal medicine producing lasting good results, and is pleasant to take. It is a soothing, strengthening, and altogether wholesome remedy that will cure any case of nervous exhaustion or kindred ailment that has not reached a hopeless state, if indeed such a condition is possible since the invaluable properties of colory have been utilized

THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1894.

Col. Bradley, of Walden, who was mentioned in the Newburgh Telegram and other papers as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress, has written to Mr. Charles St. John that he has no aspirations in that direction. He expresses the earnest hope that Hon. Francis Marwin will accept a renomination, to which, by party usage, he is entitled.

Recent by-elections in England while they show Conservative gains, lawless strikers in possession of the have not resulted in the loss of any seats to the Liberals. The Liberal vote In Scotland keeps well up to the old figures; in Wales there has been considerable of a shrinkage and in England the losses have been heaviest. It looks very much as if the tide of public opinion was turning against the Liberals and that the next gen. erai election might result in a Conservative victory.

Paris Anarchists exploded a bomb, yesterday, which wrecked a restaurant and wounded several persons. Crazy as these European dynamiters are, they seem sane when compared with the striking miners and cone workers of the Connellaville region. in Western Pennsylvania, who, because their demands for increased wages are not granted, are preparing dynamite with which to destroy the coke works on which they are dependent for employment.

Hon, Thomas G. Alvord, of Syracuse, and Hon. John M. Francis. of Troy, who were members of the constitutional convention of 1867, are members of the convention that will meet this year. They both voted against woman suffrage in 1867, but say that this year they will favor an amendment permitting women to vote for School Commissioners, but are not convinced that it would be was dismissed this morning, on Rewise policy to give them full suffrage

State control of the liquor traffic has been proposed by many reformers as the best means of remedying the evils of the business and the working of the South Carolina dispensary law has been watched with interest. Republican Senators tried to quiz Mr. Mills, yesterday, and while he was speaking plied him with from the Finance Committee provid- poor. ed for so many specific charges. Mr. Mille's answer was to the nature of a confession, but its very frankness made it final and conclusive. It was: "There are protectionists on this side of the chamber. We could not pass the bill but for some such duties as these. This bill does not suit me. I am between the devil and the deep ses. I don't want to go to the devil and I don't want to go to sea. It is the best bill that could be devised and I am soing to vote for it just as I would vote for any measure that is an improvement on that mon-stroug bill of McKinley's."

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregorie, Bateman's Drops, Gulfrey's Cordeal, many so-called Sootbing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphize?

Do You Know that opuum and morphine are stopefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not period any medicine to be given your child valess you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castone is a purely regetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Cactoria is the prescription of the famous Dr Samuel Pitcher That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined? Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense? Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless? Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35

Story of a Fuithful Servant Who Obeyed

Orders. There is a man in this town who has a nale servant who is more fathful than aby dog that was ever born. He never questions an order. If the man was to tell him to walk down to the foot of Main street and jump off a dock, he would do the walking and the jumping with a simple and unquesioning faith.

The other day a friend of the man came into his office and asked the man to lend im his servant for a short time. The friend wanted a package which be had left et his house. The package was too valuabie to intrust to a messenger boy, and be was too busy to go after it himself. The man loaned the servant, and the friend gave him these instructions: "Now, John, I want you to go up to my house and walk right up the front steps. The door will be open, and you go right up stairs. You go in, and you will find a big package on my dresser. That's the package I want, and if you get back in an hour I will give you a dollar."

The male servant listened attentively and said that he understood his instruc-tions. He hustled out and in less than an hour returned with the package. He was not in very good shape. His face was bruised, and his coat was torn. One of his eyes was, blackened, and the skin was off the knuckles of his right hand.

"Holy Moses, John!" exclaimed his employer. "What have you been doing?" "Been in a fight," replied John grimly.

"With whom?"

"Fellow up at that man's house." "What were you fighting about?"

"Why," said John in the most matter of fact way, "he didn't want me to walk up the front steps. They had just been paint-

"Well, why did you walk up them then?" John looked reproachfully at his employ-"Didn't he tell me to go up the front steps for thet package?" he asked.

"Yes, but"—
"They hain't no 'but' about it. He told me to go up them front steps, and I went up 'em, paint or no paint. I had to fight the coachman, but I went up."

"He seems to have given you a pretty hard fight," ventured the employer. "Hub!" snifted John contemptuously. "It wasn't a jestch on the one the housekeeper and the chambermand grame."

The man began to get alarmed. "Do you mean to say you fought everybody in that house'" he asked severely.

"I dunno," replied John gravely. "I licked the coachman, and the housekeeper, and the chambermaid, and the cook. If they was anybody else, I didn't have no truck with them. But," he added triumphantly, "I got the package, and I done what I was told, and I'll go back and lick the rest of the folks if you say so."—Buffalo Express.

Well Prepared.

The organizer of an arctic expedition was approached by a delicate looking feliow who wanted to join the party.

"You don't look as if you could stand it," rentured the organizer. "You'll find me a kind of a singed cat fellow," be replied confidently.

"Have you ever been in the arctic region-" 'No, not exactly."

"Have you had any experience in that line at all?" The applicant got a brace on himself.

"Well," he responded, "I should say I had. I was engaged for two years to a Boston girl." And the organizer accepted that as a recommendation. - Detroit Free Press.

"And what is your youngest son doing?" "He's preparing himself to teach school in Idaho," replied the young man's mother. "He's quite busy with his books then."
